

The Library Marketplace Becomes Exclusive Distributor of ALA Editions

NEWS RELEASE

TORONTO, ON (September 1, 2016): Starting September 1, 2016, The Library Marketplace (formerly The OLASore) will be the exclusive distributor of ALA Editions (ISBN prefix 978-0-8389) in Canada.

ALA Editions is the publishing department of the American Library Association (ALA). The Canadian library and information services world can now access additional, comprehensive print materials, which include professional development resources and promotional materials for libraries, literacy, and reading. Popular items now available include:

Pete the Cat Poster ($25)

The Heart of Librarianship by Michael Stevens ($67)

Mentoring A-Z by
Julie Todaro ($81)

Specifically focused on professional library tools and resources, ALA Editions includes the Neal-Schuman imprint and ALA TechSource, providing information on integrating all kinds of technologies in libraries. The Library Marketplace continues to exclusively represent Facet Publishing, UK and ALA Graphics in Canada.

Visit www.thelibrarymarketplace.com to access the store.

About The Library Marketplace, the store of the Ontario Library Association: The Library Marketplace (formerly the OLASore) was created with the goal of providing specialized educational resources for the Canadian library world. For over ten years, practicing library staff, students and board members can visit the online store to access professional development materials and educational picture books. The store also promotes a love of reading and libraries through merchandise, which includes: literary-themed textiles (clothing, tote bags, etc.), gifts, games, posters, bookmarks and other unique items for book lovers.

:. ontario library association

Media Contact:

Annesha Hutchinson
Communications and Project Officer
Ontario Library Association
416.363.3388 x231
communications@accessola.com